

Privacy Policy

Judi's House has a very straight forward privacy policy regarding your personal information. We will not sell, distribute, or in any way disperse your private information to any third party organization.

In addition, any credit card transactions will be processed through secure servers to ensure your privacy and security is protected.

Refund Policy

Judi's House will make refunds on donations when requested as long as it adheres to the policies and procedures of the vendors who process all website donations. In the event this information is not sufficient, please contact Judi's House at 720-941-0331 and ask for the internal website contact person.