

Volunteer Opportunities at Judi's House

Companion Volunteer (Currently Unavailable)

Ideal opportunity for caring, consistent, skilled adults to companion grieving children ages 3-18

- Offer support to grief counselors in group
- Provide an additional adult presence in groups
 - Participate in selection and training process:
 - Submit volunteer application
 - Attend in-person interview with staff
 - Complete a background check
 - Attend two-day, 12-hour volunteer training and complete three group observations (if accepted as a Companion Volunteer)

Companion Volunteers commit to participate in four group sessions (preferably consecutive). Sessions require a one night per week commitment for ten weeks.

Nourishment Providers (Currently Unavailable)

One of our most flexible volunteer opportunities for ages 10 and up, Nourishment Volunteers provide, prepare, and serve nutritious meals to our families on a one-time or regular basis.

- Utilize Judi's House "warming kitchen" furnished with two microwaves, two ovens, and crockpots, to serve meals. Please note: all food must be prepared off-site
- Clean, wash dishes, and store any leftovers at the completion of dinner
- Spend approximately two hours on-site depending on if you choose to cater or prepare a homecooked meal (time spent at Judi's House is typically from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.). Dinner is served promptly at 5:25 p.m.

Mission Volunteers

We seek individuals with a wide variety of skill sets and availability to help keep our facilities in tip-top shape and to assist with administrative and fundraising tasks, such as:

- Facility maintenance
- Administrative tasks
- Spanish translation
- Event support
- Outreach programs
- Fundraising

Quilter Volunteers

At the completion of every Pathfinders group, children and families come together to create a quilt square in honor of the special people they are grieving. Individuals and quilting guilds are tapped to combine these squares into a single quilt. These quilts are then displayed on the walls of Judi's House.

Corporate/Team Volunteers (Currently Unavailable)

Volunteer programs are beneficial to all businesses. They improve performance, employee retention and morale, encourage teamwork, and promote leadership. In collaboration with Judi's House we will help your company create a specialized volunteer opportunity that meets your needs and ours.

Volunteer Opportunities at Judi's House During COVID-19

Group Night Volunteer

This new opportunity is available to new and returning Judi's House volunteers. Open to individuals ages 14 and up. As a Group Night Volunteer you will:

- Be a friendly face as families arrive for group
- Escort families through the health screening and to their assigned group room
- Reunite kids with their caregivers at the end of the group session
- Time Commitment: 5:15 – 7:15 p.m.

Program Supply Volunteer

This new role is instrumental in preparing materials and supplies for group counseling sessions during the pandemic. We welcome individuals age 14 and up from 9:30 a.m. to noon on select Fridays.
